

SOCIETY OF TOXICOLOGY OF CANADA
LA SOCIÉTÉ DE TOXICOLOGIE DU CANADA

54th Symposium / 54<sup>e</sup> Symposium

November 30th – December 2nd, 2022

Delta Hotel – Ottawa, ON

ENVIRONMENTAL AND LIFESTYLE EXPOSURE TO ENDOCRINE DISRUPTING CHEMICALS: FROM CELLS TO SOCIETY

EXPOSITION PAR L'ENVIRONNEMENT ET LE MODE DE VIE AUX PERTURBATEURS ENDOCRINIENS : DES CELLULES À LA SOCIÉTÉ

Programme Committee / Comité du Programme

Dr. Anne Marie Gannon (Health Canada) – Chair

Dr. Albert Licollari (Nuero-Technics)

Dr. Ed Krol (University of Saskatchewan)

TENTATIVE PROGRAMME

DAY 1 – November 30

Annual Business Meeting of the Board of Directors

Greet & Meet @ Featured Restaurant

DAY 2 – December 1

Session I - Impacts of Endocrine Disrupting Chemicals on Indigenous Health

VE Henderson Award Lecture

Session II - Endocrine Disruption: Considerations for Health & Consumer Product Safety

Plenary address – Dr. Ana Soto, Tufts University

President's Reception and Awards Ceremony @ Local Pub

DAY 3 – December 2

Session III - Endocrine Disrupting Chemicals during development

Gabriel Plaa Award Lecture

Session IV - The future is now – Using NAMs to elucidate the effects of EDCs

MAIN FEATURES:

- Plenary Lectures
- Session Lectures by Invited Experts
- Indigenous Health Focussed Session
- Plaa and Henderson Awardee Lectures
- Short-Talks from Selected Abstracts
- Trainee Awards – Travel/Best-Poster
- Hybrid format of sessions for remote attendance
- One-roof classroom setting for in-person attendance/snacks/coffee/lunch provided
- Social Events – Presidents Reception/ Pre-Symposium
- Yoga + Meditation/ Health Breaks
- Business Meetings – General/Board